

Management Board

Management Board

The management board of ruhlamat GmbH presently consists of three members: President & CEO, Financial & Administrative Management and Head of Product Management. The management board is characterised by a dual management responsibility model: The operating units in the respective Group areas fall under the line-management responsibility of the individual management board members.

In addition, the management board members take on the transregional responsibility for certain functions with high strategic importance for the company.

Source URL: <https://www.ruhlamat.com/en/company/management-board>